A short reflection on today's Gospel. *Mark 10:17-30

Give everything you own to the poor and follow me.

Today's Gospel testifies to the difficulty of attaining eternal life without the grace of God which makes everything possible. The young man who asks Jesus what he must do to gain eternal life is, to all intents and purposes, living an exemplary life: he keeps the commandments and lives within the law. He exudes an innocent eagerness which causes Jesus to look on him with love. Yet, he has formed an attachment which blocks his relationship with God, an attachment to his worldly possessions. When Jesus asks him to sell all he owns and journey with him, the rich young man walks sadly away, unable to let go of his riches. He fails to understand that he must let go in order to receive. And what he will receive in return for letting go is the gift of eternal life, eternal life lived in the glorious presence of God. But the young man's faith is too fragile to let go of that which he holds dearer than God.

Jesus, help us daily to hear the divine whisper of our Creator urging us to let go, to let go of our worldly attachments, to let go of our fears, our anger, our burdens – all that stands in the way of our journey to eternal bliss, to peace beyond all understanding.

Jesus, may we, in this blessed season of autumn, learn to let go and to embrace transformational change with joy. May we acquiesce with grace to the death that will give birth to new, glorious life.

Jesus, may we never forget that it is God's grace which makes everything possible. When we stumble and fall, it is God's grace which lifts us up and gently sets us on our way to Him again.

Our Lady, Untier of Knots Novena will continue after 7.30 pm Mass each Thursday until 25th November. Do you have some “knots” in your life? Knots of discord in your family, the knots of deep hurts in relationships, the absence of peace and joy in the home. Sometimes our lives may seem one big knot due to circumstances beyond our control when we face health problems. This Novena reminds us that sin never entangled Our Lady; that Christ gave His Mother to be our Mother, the Untier of Knots. We pray and entrust our specific “knots” to Her loving hands, learning how to let go of that which binds us.

Our Lady, Untier of Knots candles on sale - £2.50 each.

Our Lady, Untier of Knots Novena – Meditation for Thursday, 14th October

Meditating Mother, Queen of heaven, in whose hands the treasures of the King are found, turn your merciful eyes upon me today. I entrust into your holy hands this knot in my life ..... and all hostility and resentment it has caused in me.

Father in heaven, I ask Your forgiveness for my sin. Help me to forgive all the people who consciously or unconsciously caused this knot in me. Give me also the grace to forgive myself for having provoked this knot. Only in this way can You undo it. Having been granted forgiveness, I now forgive these people ..... and myself, before You dearest Mother, and in the name of Your Son Jesus, my Saviour, who has suffered so many offences. Thank you Mary, Untier of Knots for undoing this knot in my heart and the knot which I now present to you. Amen.

Mary, Untier of Knots, pray for me.

On Sunday 17th October, St. Eugene's Cathedral Parish are organising A Day of Discernment which will be the first in a series of four days of reflection on the theme of Vocation.

In Sacred Scripture, when a prophet is called there normally follows a pattern of: The Call, The Doubt, The Reassurance and finally The Acceptance. This first day will focus specifically on God calling? How does he call? What does he call us to? How do we know God is calling us?

With the support and accompaniment of those who have experience in the practice of discernment, we will help participants' identify the signs of God's call and allow them to respond with confidence and faith.
