A short reflection on today's Gospel John 16:12-15

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.'

Today's Gospel invites us to reflect on the doctrine of the Trinity. It is a difficult doctrine for most of us but perhaps it is only by accepting that many things relating to the mystery of God are too much for us to fully understand that we are able to rest peacefully in the knowledge that it is only with the transformation that is the gift of death- the liberation of our souls- that the mystery of God will be revealed to us. In the meantime, we know that God is an infinite outpouring of love for all of creation: a constant flow of unconditional love for us, sinners and saints alike, a never-failing, positive, flowing assurance that He is on our side, completely for us.

We know that God the Son is always with us. Having shared fully in our human condition he is with us through our joys and our sorrows, holding our hand and guiding us through the dark places in our lives.

We know that the Holy Spirit is in us. The Holy Spirit rests in our inviolable souls, our souls that Thomas Merton sees as the precious diamond at the centre of our being. The Holy Spirit is the light-giver, illuminating the truth of Divine Love and reminding us in the pregnant silence of our souls that we belong to that Divine Love.

The Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit, in the Oneness of Divine Love. The rest is silence. We need no more.

Blessed Carlos Acutis

Blessed Carlo Acutis, an Italian Catholic teenager, was beatified in Assisi, Italy on 10th October 2020. He documented Eucharistic miracles around the world and catalogued them all onto a website that he created himself in the months before his death from leukaemia. Carlo was known for his cheerfulness, his care for others, his computer skills and his deep devotion to the Eucharist, saying it was his “highway to heaven”.
