

Holy Week Reflections

Palm Sunday

Today, the liturgy invites us to contemplate the face of the suffering Lord. Jesus' mission, purpose, goal and glory are revealed in his Passion. We encounter today the pure and perfect witness of God's love. If you are tempted to doubt God's love, look at Christ crucified. Here the mystery of God's love is revealed. Jesus would have died on the cross if there was only one of us to die for. Only his death, his sacrifice, his laying down of his life for us, could reconcile us with the Father, open heaven to us and secure for us life eternal, which was lost through the fall of Adam.

Monday

All four Evangelists record an account of a woman anointing Jesus. The version found in Luke 7:36-50 stands on its own, offering us the same message but set against a slightly different backdrop (and including Simon the Pharisee's reaction). What all four accounts have in common is that they reveal an incident which captures so beautifully, so powerfully and so movingly a love for Jesus which is difficult to find words to describe. You see, what the Christian life is all about is actually very simple and straightforward. Mary witnessed to love. Her 'waste' of nard and her profound willingness to humble herself and wash the Lord's feet were an expression of her deep, unashamed and uncompromising love for her Saviour.

Tuesday

Judas was one of the twelve apostles. We can sometimes lose sight of this fact. Jesus chose him to be a member of the most dynamic group of men the world has ever known. We are not given the details of how Judas became a follower of Christ, as we are with some of the other apostles. We can be certain, however, that the Lord chose him because he saw in him the necessary qualities. What happened to change him can really only be the subject of conjecture. We just don't know what was going on in his heart to betray the Lord as he did.

Wednesday

The clear indication of scripture is that Judas was motivated by greed and avarice and completely misunderstood Jesus and his mission. What was really going on in his mind we cannot really know. What we do know is that Jesus would have forgiven him. Jesus taught forgiveness and love of one's enemy.

Holy Thursday

Jesus' disciples are offended, even scandalized, by the humility of this gesture of washing their feet. Peter protests strongly, keen to prevent his Lord and Master adopting such a humble and lowly position. Peter was not showing false humility: he was genuinely shocked, horrified even, that Jesus should adopt the position of a slave. Jesus washed his disciples' feet because he wanted to set them an example. In the same way that he had humbled himself and washed their feet, so they should humble themselves and wash one another's feet.

Good Friday

Today a special grace flows through the Church. Today the mystery of the cross shines out. Today, the cross, not the Eucharist, is the highpoint, the focus of our celebration. Our thoughts and prayers are focused on the cross. We adore, worship and venerate the cross by which the world was saved. We will go forward today to venerate the cross. In this gesture we show our love and our dependence on Christ. For Jesus, his glory was his cross. For him his death was not defeat but victory; death was not the end but the beginning.

Holy Saturday

We invite you, today, on this most holy and sacred of days, to ponder the rich wisdom offered to us in this ancient homily for Holy Saturday. The early believers had a profound grasp of the drama of our salvation played out before them in the liturgy. 'O Christ, you slept a life-giving sleep in the grave, and didst awaken humankind from the heavy sleep of sin. All-powerful and ever-living God, your only Son went down among the dead and rose again in glory. In your goodness raise up your faithful people buried with him in baptism, to be one with him in the eternal life of heaven'.

Funeral Masses are not celebrated on Holy Thursday, Good Friday or Holy Saturday.

Celebration of Holy Week and Easter

Loving God,
we are the body of your Son in the world today.
As we begin our journey to Calvary give us
the courage to carry our crosses.
Help us to know that when we suffer
we share in the suffering of Christ.
Give us the faith to believe that with Christ our crosses never end in death
but in the resurrection.
As we await Easter Day fill our hearts with joy.
We make this prayer through Jesus Christ who is our crucified and risen Saviour for ever and ever.
Amen.

The six weeks of Lent are a preparation for the last three days of this week, Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil. During them we celebrate the central event of our religion, the death and the resurrection of Christ, the Saviour of the World.

Medical advice is that wearing face coverings is first and foremost about protecting others.

Please continue to observe social distancing, to use the hand sanitiser on entering and leaving the Cathedral.

Reflection on today's Gospel

The Passion of our Lord - *Mark 14:1-15:47

In today's Gospel we walk with Jesus through his Passion and death. We witness his triumphant entry into Jerusalem amidst acclamations and shouts of praise. "Hosanna to the King!" the people cry; at the same time Judas' betrayal of his friend has already been set in motion. We witness Jesus teaching the apostles about true leadership, servant leadership, as he washes their feet. We kneel as he celebrates the first Eucharist. We bow our heads in shame as, with sadness, he announces that one of those present will betray him; our spirits droop as he gently foretells Peter's denial of him.

We move with the man of sorrows into the garden of Gethsemane and witness him sweating blood as he endures his dark endless night of the soul. We long to comfort him as he cries out his terror to his Father in heaven. His loneliness as his three companions sleep pierces our hearts. His apprehension by the Roman soldiers, his mock trial, his cruel scourging and crowning with thorns appal us. We walk beside him as, carrying his cross, he begins his agonizing journey to Calvary. Our hearts are pierced anew as his mother runs to him and tries to hold his bleeding body in her arms, before she is roughly thrust aside by the soldiers.

We are appalled anew as he is stripped of his garments; we are terror-stricken as he is nailed to the cross. As his broken body hangs there, his cruel agony written on his beautiful, ravaged, face, we hear to our astonishment only words of forgiveness issuing from the depth of his being. Moments from death, he begs his Father to forgive those who have inflicted on him the terrible things we have witnessed.

We have walked with Jesus today as, fully human, he willingly endured his agony in order that our sins might be forgiven; in order to open the door to eternal life for us.

How can we repay him? How can we show our gratitude?

How can we be more than spectators at his Passion and death?

We might start by expressing our complicity in his agony?

Sympathy

We offer our sympathy to the family and friends of:

The Matt Talbot Prayer Society – Praying for those suffering from Addiction: This Prayer Society has been created to pray for people who are suffering from any form of addiction, to pray for those recovering from addiction, and to pray for all those affected by addiction, especially family members. As we know addiction takes many forms from alcohol, drugs, gambling, pornography, to other less acknowledged addictions.

To join the Matt Talbot Prayer Society, you are invited to enrol the name of the person to be prayed for and the addiction we are praying that they will be freed from.

Those enrolled will be prayed for specifically every day by members of the Matt Talbot Prayer Society. Mass will be offered for those enrolled on the first Monday of every month here in St Eugene’s Cathedral at 7.30 pm. You will also receive an enrolment card to enable you to join in the prayer.

To enrol someone in the Matt Talbot Prayer Society please phone St Eugene’s Cathedral at 028 71262894 or email steugenes@btconnect.com or private message St Eugene’s Cathedral Facebook page.

Blessed Carlos Acutis

Blessed Carlo Acutis, an Italian Catholic teenager, was beatified in Assisi, Italy on 10th October 2020. He documented Eucharistic miracles around the world and catalogued them all onto a website that he created himself in the months before his death from leukaemia. Carlo was known for his cheerfulness, his care for others, his computer skills and his deep devotion to the Eucharist, saying it was his “highway to heaven”. There is a display in the Cathedral dedicated to Blessed Carlo Acutis and prayer cards which you are welcome to take.
